

Grand Knight's Report

I hope everyone had an enjoyable Christmas with family and friends, and were able to celebrate New Year's Eve. I know we are all hopeful for a peaceful and prosperous 2026!

We will be continuing with our regular scheduled meetings with an executive meeting on Tuesday

January 6th at 7:45 PM our general business meeting on Tuesday Januray 13th at 7:45 PM. In February our executive meeting will be on Tuesday February 3rd at 7:45 PM and our general business meeting will be on Tuesday February 10th at 7:45 PM. Participation ensures we keep a vibrant and strong Knights of Columbus council.

Our regular bingo schedule continues with the first Wednesday of the month, January 7th and the first Wednesday, February 4th. Volunteers are requested to arrive at 5:00 PM. Bingo is our largest earning function, and without this income from bingo we could not make contributions to all the charitable organizations that we support. If you are able to volunteer for this, please contact the Bingo Chairman, Brother John Murray at (403) 715-7490 to be added to his volunteer list.

At present we are looking for a volunteer to take over the position of Breakfast Coordinator. Until such time that someone steps forward to take on the responsibilities of this position, all further breakfasts are put on hold.

We also need someone to fill in the position of Advocate and the position of Chairman of the Retention Committee. These positions were vacated by Brother Wendlin Wandler who has graciously accepted taking over the position of Treasurer. For any matters or concerns relevant to the Treasurer, contact Wendlin at (403)382-0520 or email to treasurer@knightsorcolumbus5726.org

On November 24th I was honoured to be able to present our councils awards to deserving students at St. Francis Junior High School and on December 8th at Catholic Central High School.

In this newsletter I am starting something new. I will be providing an article about a major Saint and/or feast day for each month. I'm starting with the Feast Day of St. Basil The Great on January 2nd and following with Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes - St. Bernadette - February 11th.

I am hoping you will enjoy reading the history of these saints and their stories. Let me know what you think.

From The Desk Of The Financial Secretary

From the Desk of the Financial Secretary

Greetings, as your Financial Secretary, the Council remains in good shape. Our 2025 budget was amended on April 1st, with the addition of our 60th Anniversary event and further amended this fall for the Clergy Night function. It was determined that with the surplus from last year we could afford to plan on a $5,000.00 deficit and fund the full cost of the 60th and a further $2,000.00 for Clergy Night. We are closing out the year on this track. A new Budget for 2026 will be voted on at our Business Meeting on January 13th.

Our membership stands at an Active Members of 91 of which 43 are Honorary Life members and two Exempt members. This is a change from my last report due to the loss of two long-time Knights. If you know of someone who is looking for a way to express their Catholic faith, let them know that it is easy to join, just have them go to kofc.org/joinus.

The generation of Honorary & Honorary Life Cards has recommenced, and I am slowly receiving the cards missed over the past three years. I am distributing them as I receive.

Our next billing session has commenced, as of January 1st. Dues remain at $40.00 for Regular Members and $10.00 for Honorary Members. Honorary Life are exempt from payment. With the Postal Strike still active but in Back to Work status, I hope to be able to complete billing fully electronic. If you are reading this newsletter electronically, you should have received an email for the billing if you owe anything, if you have not, check your Junk folder and if not there, send me an email to state you haven't received it.

If you are receiving this newsletter by mail and not an Honorary Life or Exempt member, please send me an email so I can do the billing through that means. As always, eTransfer is my recommended means of payment although cash or cheque will always be accepted. Communications and eTransfer through FS.5726@shaw.ca.

For those wondering where your dues go here is a quick reference:

Fixed costs per paying members	Supreme Costs
As of January 1st 2025, State per capita was raised from $19 to $22, Insurance is ~$1.29 each but ~$2.41 per paying member.	per capita	3.50
Total cost per Regular now ~$30.91 of $40 paid	Advertising	1.00
Total cost per Honorary remains ~$6.91 of $10 paid	Pro Life	2.00
	Total	6.50

Pancake Breakfasts

We are in dire need to find a volunteer to take up the position of Breakfast Coordinator! Until such time that someone steps up to take over this position, all future proposed breakfasts will be put on hold.

It is not a difficult job. We normally have 9 breakfasts a year, which requires you to line up volunteer workers, buy groceries, and organize the breakfast on Sunday morning. Training will be provided for you, along with a list of volunteer workers and spreadsheets for required groceries.

Are you available to take over this position?

Come to a meeting and volunteer or call Manfred Poehlmann at (403) 360-4857.

Words From The Pulpit

Some major celebrations which will occur over the next two months:

- January 1st – The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God
- January 4th – The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord
- January 11th – Feast of the Baptism of the Lord
- January 12th – Christmas Ends (Ordinary Time begins)
- February 2nd – Feast of the Presentation of the Lord
- February 18th – Ash Wednesday
- February 22nd – Rite of Election

As you are reading this you are most likely winding down from the Christmas celebrations, because that is what society wants you to think. The reality of our faith and Church is that Christmas is celebrated all the way up to the Sunday following Epiphany, or the Baptism of the Lord, this year January 11th.

This fact leads many to not fully understand the Christmas season as it keeps changing each year. The best indication of the Christmas season is the song, 12 days of Christmas. Epiphany falls on January 6th, the twelfth day after Christmas, but to simplify celebrations, this Feast is moved to the nearest Sunday. The Sunday following this movement is thus the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord but only if the Sunday it is moved to is the 7th or 8th, when it is moved to the Monday following Epiphany. You can see how this can be very confusing. I can't fix this confusion, but I can leave you with this thought, Christmas doesn't end on December 26th but is a celebration of at least 12 days and as much as 19 days. So Merry Christmas!

My final piece will be a teaching moment on the twelve days of Christmas. Most of us grew up singing "The 12 Days of Christmas" as if it were nothing more than a cheerful holiday rhyme — a fun, whimsical melody celebrating birds, rings, and dancing figures. But the truth behind this song is far more sacred, far more courageous, and far more meaningful than most people ever imagine.

This beloved Christmas carol carries a hidden message of survival, one born during a time when Christians — especially Catholics — were forbidden to openly teach their children the foundations of the faith. So, they did what people of faith have always done in times of persecution: they became creative, they became clever, they wrapped truth in beauty, and Scripture in song. And so "The 12 Days of Christmas" was born — not as a festive jingle, but as a secret catechism, a coded way to pass down the Gospel when speaking it aloud could cost everything. By embedding doctrine into a simple song, families preserved what mattered most: the story of Christ, the structure of Scripture, the virtues of the Christian life, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the commandments, and the Creed.

Children could memorize the song without suspicion...yet within its verses lived the truths of Christianity. What looked like a list of strange gifts was actually a map of the Christian life, cleverly disguised.

Feast Day of St. Basil The Great - January 2

St. Basil the Great: Life, Legacy, and Influence

St. Basil the Great (c. 329–379 AD) was a towering figure of early Christian history—bishop, theologian, monk, and reformer. He belonged to a remarkable family of saints and scholars who shaped Christian thought in the fourth century. His synthesis of classical learning and Christian faith, his work for the poor, and his defense of orthodox doctrine left an enduring mark on both Eastern and Western Christianity.

Early Life and Education

Basil was born around 329 AD in Caesarea Mazaca, the capital of Cappadocia (modern-day Turkey). His family was part of the provincial aristocracy and notable for its deep Christian faith. His grandmother, Macrina the Elder, had endured persecution during the Diocletianic era and transmitted a strong tradition of devotion to her descendants. Basil's parents, Basil the Elder and Emmelia, were both highly educated and pious; several of their children—including Macrina the Younger, Gregory of Nyssa, and Peter of Sebaste—would become saints.

Basil received an exceptional education for his time. After early studies at home and in Caesarea, he continued his education in Constantinople and then at Athens, where he formed a lasting friendship with Gregory of Nazianzus. The two young scholars immersed themselves in philosophy, rhetoric, and classical literature, mastering the arts of Greek oratory that would later distinguish Basil's sermons and letters. Among their fellow students may have been Julian, the future Roman emperor and later opponent of Christianity.

Conversion and Monastic Calling

After completing his studies, Basil returned home to teach rhetoric and pursue a worldly career. However, under the influence of his sister Macrina the Younger, he underwent a profound spiritual awakening. In his own words, he “wasted much time in vanity” before discovering the “true philosophy” of the Gospel. Around 356 AD he was baptized and soon resolved to dedicate himself wholly to God.

Basil traveled through Egypt, Syria, and Palestine to study monastic life firsthand. These journeys impressed upon him the potential of organized ascetic communities as a means of pursuing holiness while remaining socially responsible. When he returned to Cappadocia, he founded a monastery on the family estate near the Iris River in Pontus. There he composed the Asceticon—a set of rules and spiritual instructions that balanced prayer, manual labor, study, and community life. These writings later became foundational for Eastern Orthodox monasticism and remain influential today.

Priest and Theologian

By 364 AD, Basil had been ordained a priest by Bishop Eusebius of Caesarea. The church at that time faced deep theological conflict arising from Arianism—the belief that the Son was a created being and not fully divine. Basil initially withdrew to monastic life to avoid controversy, but mounting divisions in the Cappadocian church compelled him to act. Reconciled with Eusebius, Basil became a key defender of Nicene orthodoxy, emphasizing the full divinity of the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes - St. Bernadette - February 11

Our Lady of Lourdes: History, Apparitions, and Legacy

Our Lady of Lourdes is one of the most celebrated Marian apparitions in the Catholic Church, with her feast day observed on February 11. The story of Lourdes is not only a tale of miraculous visions but also a profound example of faith, humility, and the enduring appeal of the Virgin Mary in modern Catholic spirituality. The apparitions and the ensuing devotion transformed the small town of Lourdes in southwestern France into one of the world's foremost pilgrimage sites.

Historical Context

In the mid-19th century, France was undergoing a period of social and political turbulence. The country had experienced the upheavals of the French Revolution, Napoleonic wars, and numerous shifts in government, leaving many communities in poverty and spiritual uncertainty. At the same time, the 19th century witnessed a revival of Catholic devotion, especially in rural areas where faith remained strong despite social change.

Lourdes was a small, relatively unknown market town in the Pyrenees, with a population largely engaged in agriculture. It was within this quiet setting that an extraordinary event occurred in 1858, which would bring the town—and its people—global attention.

The Apparitions of Bernadette Soubirous

The central figure in the Lourdes story is Bernadette Soubirous (1844–1879), a 14-year-old peasant girl.

Bernadette came from a poor family; her father, a miller, struggled to make ends meet, and the family lived in a damp, unhealthy house. Bernadette herself suffered from ill health, including asthma, which made her a fragile young girl.

On February 11, 1858, while gathering firewood near the Grotto of Massabielle, Bernadette reported seeing a beautiful lady dressed in white, with a blue sash around her waist, holding a rosary and standing atop a small rock. The lady, later identified as the Virgin Mary, reportedly spoke to Bernadette, instructing her to pray, do penance, and encourage others to come in devotion.

Over the course of 18 apparitions, which continued until July 16, 1858, Bernadette received messages emphasizing prayer, penance, and devotion to the Immaculate Conception—a belief that Mary was conceived without original sin. This was significant because the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception had been formally declared only four years earlier, in 1854, by Pope Pius IX. Through these apparitions, Mary's connection to the Church's teaching was emphasized, and the young peasant girl became the unlikely vessel for an extraordinary spiritual message.

The Miraculous Spring

During one of the apparitions, the Lady instructed Bernadette to drink from a spring and wash in its waters, even though no water was visible at the site. Bernadette dug in the mud and discovered a small stream that continues to flow to this day. The spring of Lourdes has since been associated with numerous healing miracles, both physical and spiritual, and has become a focal point for pilgrims seeking hope, comfort, and divine intervention.

Scientific studies have been conducted on the Lourdes water, which is considered clean but not unique in chemical composition. Despite this, countless testimonies of healing and transformation continue to draw millions to the grotto each year, attesting to the profound faith and devotion inspired by the site rather than the physical properties of the water alone.

Recognition and Pilgrimage

Initially, Bernadette faced skepticism and even hostility from local authorities and clergy, who questioned the authenticity of her visions. However, a rigorous investigation by the Church eventually ...

validated her experiences. In 1862, Bishop Bertrand-Sévère Laurence of Tarbes formally recognized the apparitions as worthy of belief, establishing Lourdes as an official site of Marian devotion.

Following this recognition, Lourdes quickly became a major pilgrimage destination. Infrastructure was developed to accommodate growing numbers of visitors, including the construction of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception, built above the grotto, and later, the Basilica of St. Pius X for large gatherings. The town transformed into a spiritual hub, welcoming millions of pilgrims annually, including the sick, disabled, and those seeking renewal of faith.

Spiritual and Cultural Impact

Our Lady of Lourdes represents hope, healing, and humility. The message delivered through Bernadette emphasizes simplicity, obedience, and devotion rather than grandeur or theological complexity. Pilgrims often speak of profound spiritual experiences, personal conversions, and physical healings at Lourdes, many of which have been officially recognized as miracles after medical and ecclesiastical examination.

Lourdes also inspired a global movement of charitable work and service. The Hospitalité Notre-Dame de Lourdes, founded to assist the sick and disabled, embodies Mary's call to compassion and service. Furthermore, the Lourdes story has become part of Catholic culture worldwide, influencing literature, music, and devotional practices.

Bernadette Soubirous: Sainthood and Legacy

Bernadette herself led a life of humble devotion after the apparitions. She joined the Sisters of Charity of Nevers, where she lived quietly and in poor health until her death in 1879. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1933, and her body remains incorrupt, displayed in the convent of Nevers. Bernadette's life and example continue to inspire faith, perseverance, and humility.

Modern Devotion

Today, Lourdes is one of the most visited pilgrimage sites in the world, drawing over six million visitors annually. The grotto, spring, and basilicas remain central to Catholic devotion, while the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes on February 11 commemorates the first apparition. Pope John Paul II elevated the significance of Lourdes in the Church, particularly highlighting its message of healing, faith, and Marian devotion.

Conclusion

The story of Our Lady of Lourdes demonstrates the power of faith and humility to touch hearts across generations. From a poor, sickly girl in rural France to a global center of pilgrimage, Lourdes exemplifies the enduring influence of Mary as a spiritual guide and source of comfort. The apparitions, the miraculous spring, and the devoted witness of St. Bernadette remind the faithful that the divine can manifest in the simplest and most unexpected circumstances, offering hope, healing, and a path to deeper spiritual life.

Clergy Appreciation Night

Our Lady of Peace Council 5726 hosted Clergy Appreciation Night on November 10th, in Assumption Hall.

The evenings event was well received by all the clergy in attendance as well as all the council members and guests.

We had a wonderful roast beef dinner that was prepared and served by Cheryl Neufeld.

After dinner the clergy were treated to a silent auction that had a slight twist. The clergy were given candies with which to bid on the items, but the bid items were not known. Each item had a clue to what it was that had to be deciphered by the clergy. Guests could also help any of the clergy if they wished. During the second phase of the auction, an additional candies were given to the clergy and an additional clue was turned over for each item. The clergy really seemed to enjoy the auction and most went away with a prize.

After the auction, Ralph and Travis Zentner, along with Doug Hazuda and Pat Siedlecki presented each of the clergy with a personalized garment bag. Thanks to Cornerstone Funeral Home for providing these gifts.

Many thanks to the members of our Clergy Night Committee for all the work they put into this that made it such a great success. Thanks to Brothers John Henderson, Wendlin Wandler, Ben Renault and John Murray. They really made this a memorable event.
